SUBJECT Edwin Wilson

JEAN COCHRAN: A former CIA agent accused of training terrorists for Libyan leader Muammar Qaddafi was arrested last night at Kennedy Airport. Edwin Wilson is being held on $20 million bond, pending a hearing today on moving him to Washington.

Wilson was traveling under an assumed name on an Irish passport. He was refused entry yesterday into the Dominican Republic and detained there by authorities.

The Justice Department apparently lured Wilson into the trap by enlisting the aid of one of his associates, who convinced Wilson he would be granted sanctuary in the Caribbean.

Wilson and his associate, Frank Terpil, are also accused of conspiracy in the attempted murder of a Libyan student in Colorado.
